ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER: COURT APPEARANCE RULES

All individuals entering the courtroom or probation offices shall be dressed appropriately.

Proper attire is mandatory in Court, the chest, breasts, stomach, back, hips, buttocks, upper thigh, and underwear must be completely covered. Appropriate footwear must be worn. No clothing or accessories may openly display offensive language or pictures, profanity, violence, obscenity, vulgarity, drug/alcohol related language or pictures, gang affiliations, or suggestive slogans.

The Judge has the authority to refuse to hear anyone's case that is not respectfully dressed for court proceedings. Persons not meeting the dress code will be required to return to court properly attired. The Judge has authorized the court security officer to prevent improperly dressed persons from entering the court area. A person in violation of the Municipal Court Dress Code will not be allowed past security and will be required to get instructions from the Court or Probation staff regarding their court appearance. These instructions may include a new court date and/or time. Failure to appear on the new date and/or time will be treated like any failure to appear for court.
